RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE VILLAGE OF NORTH BARRINGTON

HON. MELISSA L. BEAN

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 14, 2009

Ms. BEAN. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the Village of North Barrington, a town in my district celebrating a milestone anniversary this year. This community has made a unique contribution to the district I represent, and to the State of Illinois.

The Village of North Barrington is celebrating its 50-year anniversary. Located 35 miles northwest of Chicago, North Barrington's first settlers arrived in the 1830s. In 1854, the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad built its first station in the Village of Barrington, just south of the community. The first homes in North Barrington include Kimberly House, built in 1857, which was visited on several occasions by President Theodore Roosevelt, cousin of the Kimberly's daughter-in-law. North Barrington continued to develop and in 1959 area residents voted to incorporate as the Village of North Barrington.

Madam Speaker, the Village of North Barrington is unique in its history and adds greatly to the vibrant community of the Eighth District of Illinois. I thank all the past leaders of the Village of North Barrington for their dedication to public service; their community would not have reached this milestone without their hard work and commitment. I congratulate North Barrington for reaching their 50th anniversary and I wish them continued success in the future.

WALL STREET REFORM AND CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 9, 2009

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4173) to provide for financial regulatory reform, to protect consumers and investors, to enhance Federal understanding of insurance issues, to regulate the over-the-counter derivatives markets, and for other purposes:

Mr. HOLT. Madam Chair, I rise in support of H.R. 4173, the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2009, and to commend Chairman FRANK, Chairman PETERSON, and the broad coalition of Members who have worked to craft this financial services reform legislation.

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act was an important first step, but we are still in the throes of recovery from the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression, which was caused in large part by more than a decade of regulatory failures. Reckless, abusive and irresponsible practices on the part of some in the mortgage issuance and financial services industries combined to create a perfect storm, resulting in a catastrophic economic collapse. The country had fallen into recession by the end of 2007, which exploded into an economic crisis as the subprime mortgage crisis unwound, Lehman Brothers filed for bankruptcy and AIG collapsed.

The impact on the American people has been profound. Household net worth dropped by more than $14 trillion from 2007 to mid-2009, the value of retirement assets dropped by 22 percent between 2006 and in mid-2008, total home equity dropped from $13 trillion in 2006 to $8.8 trillion by mid-2008, and as of today, almost one in four homeowners owes more on their mortgage than their home is worth. In addition, Americans in every income strata have simply not been protected from even the most egregious behavior. The Securities and Exchange Commission utterly failed to discover and prevent the collapse of a $65 billion Ponzi scheme, as well as several others which also resulted in billions in losses to investors. Meanwhile, millions of Americans who live paycheck to paycheck and rely on payday loans are being charged annual interest rates of 400 percent or more, totaling nearly $5 billion per year.

The Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act is an aggressive and comprehensive response to the broad spectrum of problems the recent economic crisis brought to light. It creates a new Consumer Financial Protection Agency to ensure that bank loans, mortgages, payday loans, overdraft fees and credit card policies are fair, affordable, understandable, and transparent. It establishes a new Financial Services Oversight Council to monitor and respond to systemic risk, to prevent the sort of tidal wave of catastrophic interconnected developments that brought down the economy in 2008. It puts measures in place to ensure that there will never again be a company deemed "too big to fail," and it establishes an industry-funded dissolution fund to ensure that taxpayers will not be asked to bail out any such company if it goes into collapse. The bill also includes legislation passed in the House earlier in the year, to regulate the type of incentive-based executive compensation that provoked some of the riskiest and most reckless behavior in the financial services markets, and to prohibit the sorts of fraudulent and abusive mortgage issuance practices that caused the subprime mortgage crisis.

I am also pleased that the bill includes several strengthening amendments I offered, and I thank Chairman FRANK again for his support of those amendments and for including them in the Manager's Amendment. My amendments would clarify that the newly-created Financial Services Oversight Council, rather than one dominant member thereof (the Federal Reserve Board), is the systemic risk regulator empowered under the Act. The amendments would also ensure that the Council is a broad-minded think tank staffed equitably by all of its Voting Members, rather than predominantly by one (the Department of the Treasury). The staff would remain on the payrolls of the detailing agency, pre-empting a budgetary problem for the Council.

In addition, the bill includes two good government amendments I offered, which clarify that financial companies cannot be compelled by the systemic risk regulator to waive any privilege (such as attorney-client privilege) when providing data at the request of the systemic risk regulator, and that the same protection against compelled waiver of privilege applies to private funds, investment advisors and others. In times of crisis and crisis response, we must exercise heightened diligence in protecting and preserving our foundational rights and principles.

The Committee has taken bold steps to confront the failures of our financial services regulatory system, and I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF OLD MILL CREEK

HON. MELISSA L. BEAN

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 14, 2009

Ms. BEAN. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Old Mill Creek, a town in my district that is celebrating a milestone anniversary this year. This community has made a unique contribution to district I represent, and to the State of Illinois.

The town of Old Mill Creek is celebrating its 50-year anniversary. Located five miles south of the Wisconsin border, Old Mill Creek was first settled by Scottish immigrants as a small agricultural community in the 1830s. One immigrant, Jacob Miller, built a sawmill along the Des Plaines River naming it Millburn, "burn" being the Scottish word for creek. The village of Old Mill Creek was incorporated in 1959. Old Mill Creek remains a rural community with a population of 251.

Madam Speaker, Old Mill Creek is unique in its history and adds greatly to the vibrant community of the Eighth District of Illinois. I thank all the past leaders of the town of Old Mill Creek for their dedication to public service; their community would not have reached this milestone without their hard work and commitment. I congratulate Old Mill Creek for reaching their 50th anniversary and I wish them continued success in the future.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON H.R. 3288, CONSOLIDATED APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2010

SPEECH OF

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 10, 2009

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 3288, the Consolidated Appropriations for FY 2010. Our commitment to a strategy of aggression rather than a strategy of dialogue is evident in the State and Foreign Operations portion of this legislation that includes billions of dollars in military aid, sanctions and funds for policies in the Middle East that undermine the Administration's call for a commitment to diplomacy. There are many laudable provisions in this bill but I cannot support legislation that includes funding for programs and support for the failed policies of aggression and disregard for international human rights.

I oppose the inclusion of the Export-Import Bank provision regarding Iran. This section calls on the President to implement the Iran Sanctions Act of 1996 and encourages all foreign governments to require state-owned and private entities to cease all investment in Iran's energy sector. In June of this year, I joined the House of Representatives in voting to express support for the people of Iran who embrace the values of freedom, civil liberties and human rights. Sanctions are meant to destabilize economies and have disastrous effects on the citizens at the receiving end. This provision will not harm the leadership in Iran; it will harm the people of Iran we claim to support.

I oppose the inclusion of $239 million in foreign military financing for Pakistan. More unmanned drone attacks have been authorized in the first few months of this Administration than in the last year of the Bush Administration. Hundreds of innocent civilians have been killed by these predator drones that contravene international law and cement anti-American sentiment. Military operations in the region will only serve to further destabilize a faltering Pakistan and undermine our national security.

This legislation includes provisions that further undermine the image of the United States in the Middle East as an honest broker. It includes language that places conditions on aid to the West Bank and Gaza that cannot be satisfied in the immediate future. At the same time, the bill provides military aid to Israel without investigating credible accusations that Israel is using weapons provided by the U.S. in an offensive posture in contravention of U.S. law and international law. The perception of the U.S. as an honest broker is necessary for good-faith negotiations.

I support many provisions in this bill, such as the $4.8 billion investment in transportation infrastructure and $1.4 billion allocated for dislocated worker programs. I fully support the $2.2 billion authorized for Community Health Centers that provide primary health care to almost 17 million patients, forty-percent of whom are uninsured. The $14.5 billion appropriated for Title 1 grants for 20 million disadvantaged children in school districts across the country and high-quality early learning programs are to be supported.

Regrettably, these essential services were folded into a continuing resolution with programs that I cannot support. We cannot claim to travel the path toward peace when funding for a strengthened diplomatic core is paralleled by funding for policies of isolation and aggression.

RECOGNIZING THE VILLAGE OF ROUND LAKE'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. MELISSA L. BEAN

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 14, 2009

Ms. BEAN. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Round Lake, a village in my district celebrating a milestone anniversary this year. This community has made a unique contribution to district I represent, and to the State of Illinois.

The Village of Round Lake is celebrating its 100th anniversary. In the 1890s, when officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee, & St. Paul Railroad announced an extension of the Milwaukee-Chicago line, landowners near Hainesville, IL knew a railroad station would increase property values. One such resident, Amarias White, offered the railroad free land in exchange for a station. White succeeded and Round Lake, named after the nearby lake, became the area station. In 1909, the village incorporated with White as the first village president. Through the beginning of the 20th Century, Round Lake's population remained predominately agricultural and the lake acted as a summer retreat for Chicago residents. Today, Round Lake continues to develop as a suburban community.

Madam Speaker, the Village of Round Lake is unique in its history and adds to the vibrant community of the Eighth District of Illinois. I thank all the past leaders of the Village of Round Lake for their dedication to public service; their community would not have reached this milestone without their hard work and commitment. I congratulate Round Lake for reaching their 100th anniversary and I wish them continued success in the future.
